OF WORLD INTEREST IS PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

China, Japan, Russia and Even Berlin to Have Access to Pronouncement

Washington, Dec. 4.—President Wilson delivered to congress today an address considered so important in its relations to international affairs that it has been transmitted in advance to the governments of practically every other capital in the world. Although the address was not trusted in advance to American newspapers for news distributing associations, it already has been placed with the London office of Reuters, the principal European distributing agency, which in turn is to supply others in Europe. Indirectly, the address will get to Berlin, and the other central power capitals. Its world-wide distribution is also evidenced by the fact that it will be available for publication today in China and Japan.

In Petrograd.
The fact that the government also has taken steps to have the document placed in the hands of Ambassador Francis, in Petrograd, is taken as an indication that the president's address will deal also with the situation in Russia.

The secrecy which has been thrown around the address here in Washington, while it was being transmitted by cable and wireless all over the world prevailed up to the last moment. All that was said at the executive office at the white house in response to inquiries was that the address was "reasonably long." All officials disclaimed knowledge of its contents. The president, it is understood, practically sealed the document last Saturday.

While it was generally supposed that the president intended to touch upon the war and the international situation as a matter of course, no one suspected it would be made the occasion for a pronouncement deemed worthy of being distributed throughout the world through the agencies of the government itself.

MASONIC LODGE TO HAVE CHARGE OF LAST RITES

No Definite Announcement can be Made Today as to Date of Treacy Funeral
SON WILL REACH CHICAGO
SOME TIME THIS EVENING

Bismarck Masons will have charge of the last rites for their late brother, Dr. R. H. Treacy, whose remains now lie at the Marine hospital in Chicago, awaiting the arrival of Lieut. Richard H. Treacy, a son, who should reach his destination early this evening. The return journey probably cannot be commenced tonight, and it is doubtful whether the remains can reach Bismarck earlier than Thursday noon.

Miss Dorothy Treacy, a daughter of the deceased, arrived at noon today from Minneapolis, where she had gone Sunday to resume her studies at the University of Minnesota after spending the Thanksgiving holidays at home and Mrs. William Treacy of Montana and Mrs. Carl Tomlinson of Boston, Mass., sister-in-law and niece of the deceased, who were en route east, stopped off this morning on learning of their bereavement.

Within thirty minutes after the receipt of a telegram announcing the serious illness of Dr. R. H. Treacy at the Marine hospital in Chicago a message came Monday evening advising of his death. Both wires were brief, and no details were given.

Dr. Treacy had gone to Chicago last week with Dr. W. H. Crewe, secretary of the North Dakota livestock board, and other prominent livestock men of the northwest to attend the International stock show. He had been in poor health for some time, and his family was planning to join him in Chicago at the close of the exposition for a winter in the south. His condition was not such, however, as to lessen the shock of last night's news to his family and to his legions of friends throughout the northwest.

Lieut. R. H. Treacy, home from Fort Snelling for a 15 days' furlough before reporting for duty with his command at Camp Custer, Mich., left on the North Coast limited last night for Chicago, whence he will accompany the remains of his father to this city. Dr. Crewe is expected to return at the same time, and it is expected that the party will reach Bismarck on Thursday noon or night, and that the funeral services probably will be held the following day.

Dean of His Profession.
Dr. Treacy was dean of animal husbandry men of the northwest. He was one of Bismarck's older citizens, coming here a generation ago from

Bread Prices To Go Down Immediately

Bakers Forced to go Under Federal License December 10

Washington, Dec. 4.—Immediate reduction in bread prices wherever possible has been recommended to bakers throughout the country by the war emergency council of the baking industry. Bakers will go under government license Dec. 10, using a set formula and producing a standardized loaf required by the food administration.

In announcing recently that the baking industry was to be put under license, the food administration declared there is no reason why bread prices should not be sharply reduced. The information that a reduction has been recommended came to the food administration today in a telegram from Henry Stude of Houston, Tex., president of the National Association of Bakers.

WILL ARRAIGN HALL AND WALLA HERE WEDNESDAY

Pleas of Secretary of State and Chief Clerk to be Received
Tomorrow Morning

JUDGE WADE COMING TO TRY JIM JAM JEMS CASE

Secretary of State Thomas Hall and Eugene M. Walla, former chief clerk in the automobile registration department of the secretary of state's office, charged with the embezzlement of approximately $3,400, will be arraigned in district court at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and their trial will immediately follow the conclusion of the Pankow murder case, brought here from Sheridan county, and which is first on the criminal calendar for the December term.

Attorney General Langer, now occupied with a session of the board of pardons at the state penitentiary, announced at the opening of the December term this morning that the prosecution of Hall and Walla has been left entirely with Assistant Attorney General Daniel V. Brennan. Mr. Brennan also will assist State's Attorney F. I. Temple of Sheridan county in the prosecution of Henry Pankow, charged with murder. This morning Mr. Brennan was on his way by auto mobile home from McClusky, and while Secretary of State Hall was present in court with his attorney W. H. Stutsman of Mandan, the taking of his plea was deferred until Wednesday morning. The same course was followed in the case of Eugene Walla, whose attorney, Judge E. T. Burke, appeared for him.

White Slave Case.
A white slave case which will rival in revolving interest the action against four Grand Forks young men, recently completed in the United States district court at Grand Forks, is that of the state versus Louis Stone, Stone, who has been in the Burlington county jail since his arrest following the birth of a child to the Grand Forks high school graduate whom he is charged with seducing, was arraigned at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The principal witness for the state are the Grand Forks young woman and a Bismarck girl, both of whom are alleged to have claimed at the preliminary examination that Stone introduced them to a life of shame and lived merrily on the proceeds. The specific charge against Stone is that of receiving proceeds from prostitutes.

Federal Court.
Judge Wade of the Iowa federal district court convenes a special term of the United States district court for North Dakota in the federal building here tomorrow morning for the trial of Clark and Crockard, publishers of Jim Jam Jems, charged with misuse of the mails, and of Kate Richards O'Hare, socialist lecturer, accused of sedition. Judge Wade, Clerk of Court Montgomery and other officials are expected to reach the city late this evening. The calendar will not be given until after their arrival, and there is no way of determining the number of cases which will be called for trial at this special term.

Former Chief Justice C. J. Fisk of Minot is here to represent Clark and Crockard. He will be assisted by former Assistant Attorney General Francis J. Murphy, also of Minot.

HEAVY FIRING ON NORTHERN LINE OF ITALIAN DEFENSE

Condition Generally Much Better than Week Ago—Germans Held in Check.

(By Associated Press)
Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Sunday, Dec. 2.—Heavy firing has occurred on the northern line in the last 24 hours in the different sectors around Monte Pertica, between the Brenta and Piave rivers, and on Meletta range running west of the Brenta. Each of the opposing forces holds part of these positions.

The general conditions along the entire Italian front have improved distinctly in the last week. North-eastern Italy is now enclosed within a powerful barrier on the north and east, which is considered sufficient to hold the enemy.

PROSECUTION IN MEANS CASE RESTS

Concord, N. C., Dec. 4.—The prosecution in the trial of Gaston B. Means, charged with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King, suddenly rested its case today after presenting further evidence to show that Means had misused Mrs. King's estate for his own benefit, which is relied upon to show a motive for murder.

HINDENBURG SURE OF FUTURE SUCCESS OF TEUTONIC CAUSE

Fears Some Danger Should Some Despot Seize Russia and Resume Hostilities.

Amsterdam, Dec. 4.—General Von Ludendorff, right hand man of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, is quoted by a correspondent of the Vienna Neue Freie Presse as making the prediction at German headquarters that the war will not end in a draw but will be decided in favor of the Central powers.

The correspondent, says the dispatch, obtained this expression from Von Ludendorff in conversations with him during a visit to headquarters where he also talked with Von Hindenburg.

With reference to the Russian army, Field Marshal von Hindenburg gave to the correspondent his opinion that no more military activity on a large scale could be expected from it. He thought it possible, however, adds the correspondent, that "some despot or other like Grand Duke Nicholas might seize power and incite the weary Russian army to a final effort."

POSSES CAPTURE SEVEN CONVICTS IN A BOX CAR

Joliet, Ill., Dec. 4.—Seven of the 13 convicts who escaped from the state penitentiary here yesterday, were captured early today near Morris in a box car by three posses, and are now lodged in jail there.

No resistance was offered by the convicts. The other six are surrounded now by the posse and they are expected to be captured soon.

The three posses were organized late last night after the convicts had stopped an interurban car, robbed the passengers of everything they had, including most of their clothes and had driven the car to Morris, Ill., where they abandoned it. Reports from Morris stated that passengers from the interurban car reached there about midnight badly bruised, but none was seriously injured.

GEN. DUKKONIN THROWN FROM TRAIN AND KILLED

London, Dec. 4.—An armistice between Russia and Germany has been signed at the headquarters of Prince Leopold, of Bavaria, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam today. The armistice is valid for a period of forty-eight hours.

General Dukkonnin who took over the post of commander in chief of the Russian armies after the overthrow of the Kerensky was thrown from a train and killed, as the result of a lynch law, after Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander in chief had captured Mahilov, it was officially announced by the war office today.

Ensign Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander in chief, telegraphed today that the general staff which has refused to recognize the authority of the Bolsheviks has surrendered.

ROAD TURNED DOWN ON STOCK RATE INCREASE

Washington, Dec. 4.—Applications for increased rates on livestock in less than carloads, west of the Mississippi river were denied today by the interstate commerce commission, but permission was given to make new minimum rulings which would result in small increases.

The increases allowed would amount to an average of 15 per cent and apply mainly to shipments of breeding animals. The commission also ordered eastern railroads to cancel proposed rates, providing charges on ordinary live stock, dependent upon value.

Increases in freight rates on iron and steel articles ranging as high as 40 per cent were allowed to western railroads today by the interstate commerce commission. The increases, however, were not so great as the railroads asked.

NOTHING SHALL TURN UNITED STATES ASIDE UNTIL STRUGGLE IS WON AND GERMANY BEATEN

Peace must come only by overcoming evil.—People will not countenance any compromise with the sinister forces who seek to subdue world by arms.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 4.—Immediate declaration of war against Austria-Hungary was recommended to Congress today by President Wilson. He did not recommend declaration of war against Turkey and Bulgaria at this time.

WAR AGAINST AUSTRIA NECESSARY.
Immediate war against Austria, the President told Congress, was necessary to meet the anomalous situation the United States faces in its war with Germany, even though Austria was not her own mistress, and merely a vassal of Germany.

The same logic, he said, would lead to war against Turkey and Bulgaria, but they do not yet, he said, stand in the path of the United States in its war against Prussian autocracy.

STATES TERMS OF PEACE
In ringing, definite terms, the President declared that nothing shall turn the United States aside until the war is won and Germany is beaten. All talk of peace, he pronounced, out of the question.

Peace, the President declared, could come only when the German people make it through rulers the world can trust; when they make reparation for the destruction their present rulers have wrought and when Germany recedes from all the territory acquired by armed conquest.

Crowded with Events.
The president spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Congress:
Eight months have elapsed since I last had the honor of addressing you. They have been months crowded with events of immense and grave significance for us. I shall not undertake the detail or even summarize those events. The practical particulars of the part we have played in them will be laid before you in the reports of the executive departments. I shall discuss only our present outlook upon these vast affairs, our present duties, and the immediate means of accomplishing the objects, we shall hold always in view.

Won't Debate Causes.
"I shall not go back to debate the causes of the war. The intolerable wrongs done and planned against us by the sinister masters of Germany have long since become too generally obvious and odious to every true American to need to be rehearsed. But I shall ask you to consider again and with a very grave scrutiny our objectives and the measures by which we mean to attain them; for the purpose of discussion here in this place of action, and our action must move straight toward definite ends. Our object is, of course, to win the war, and we shall not slacken or suffer ourselves to be diverted until it is won. But it is worth while asking and answering the question: When shall we consider the war won?"

United in Spirit.
"From one point of view it is not necessary to broach this fundamental matter. I do not doubt that the American people know what the outcome they will regard as a realization of the purpose in it. As a nation, we are united in spirit and intention. I pay little heed to those who tell me otherwise. I hear the voices of dissent—who does not? I hear the criticism and clamor of the noisy, thoughtless and troublesome. Respects to Pacifists.
"I also see men here and there fling themselves in impotent disloyalty against the calm, indomitable power of the nation. I hear men debate peace, who understand neither its nature nor the war in which we may attain it with uplifted eyes and unbroken spirit. But I know that none of these speaks for the nation. They do not touch the heart of anything. They may safely be left to strut their uneasy hour and be forgotten.

But from another point of view I believe that it is necessary to say plainly what we, here at the seat of action, consider the war to be for, and what part we mean to play in the settlement of its searching issues. We are the spokesmen of the American people, and they have a right to know whether their purpose is ours. They desire peace by the overcoming of evil, by the defeat once for all of the sinister forces that interrupt peace, and render it impossible, and they wish to know how closely our thought runs with theirs and what action we propose. They are impatient with those who desire peace by any sort of compromise—deeply and indignantly impatient, but they will be equally impatient with us if we do not make it plain to them what our objectives are and what we are planning for in seeking to make conquest of peace by arms.

Must Be Crushed.
"I believe that I speak for them when I say two things: First, that this intolerable thing of which the masters of Germany have shown us the ugly face, this menace of combined intrigue and force which we now see so clearly as the German power, a thing without conscience or honor or capacity for covenanted peace, must be crushed, and if it be not utterly brought to a end, at least shut out from the friendly intercourse of the nation; and, second, that

Resolution Including all Central Powers Introduced in Senate by Pitman

Washington, Dec. 4.—A joint resolution on declaring that a state of war exists between the United States and Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, was introduced in the senate today by Senator Pitman, for Senate King, of Utah. It was referred to the foreign relations committee without action.

The senate will be ready to pass a resolution next Friday declaring war against Austria, Senator Martin, majority leader, announced today. The resolution probably will be drafted at the state department. Some debate, but no considerable opposition, is expected. Chairman Flood plans to call the house foreign affairs committee together tomorrow.

Rep. Randall Announces Bill Prohibiting Manufacture of Alcoholic Liquors.
Washington, D. C., Dec. 4.—Representative Randall of California today introduced a constitutional amendment to prohibit the manufacture of any alcoholic beverage except for restricted purposes, during the war, and to empower the president to purchase the liquor now in stock. The prohibition legislation is part of the program planned for this session, Mr. Randall said.

The house session was taken up with swearing in new members, coming to fill vacancies and the calling of the roll by states. In both houses, however, there was a pronounced air of confidence and determination to do everything to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

ARMISTICE ON RUSS FRONT.
Vienna, via London, Dec. 4.—
The following official communication was issued today:

"During the last few days an armistice has been announced on many sectors of the Russian front from division to division, and from corps to corps. In the Pripet region the Russian army concluded an official armistice with the opposing command of the allied (German) troops."

London, Dec. 4.—The British government has received from the Russian charge d'affaires a formal statement defining the attitude of the embassy and all the Russian official representatives, diplomatic, civilian, naval and military, as present in England. In this statement it is declared that the 'Bolsheviks' have no mandate for the nation, do not represent Russia as a nation, and do not constitute responsible government.

Without taking into account their previous actions, continues the statement, their latest action in publishing secret treaties without the consent of the allies suffices to place them outside the pale of civilized government.

In these circumstances the officials have refused to recognize this group of persons and will not accept any orders from them, or from any individual acting under their authority or in their name, and, moreover, will not enter into communication with them.

ELECTIONS PLEASE LENINE.

Petrograd, December 4.—Nikolai Lenine, the Bolsheviki premier, today expressed great elation over the results of the election in Petrograd, when asked by the Associated Press for an expression of opinion regarding the outcome.

"The elections have proved a great victory for the Bolsheviki party," said Lenine. "The number of votes cast for it in the elections of May and August and no win November is constantly growing."

"Do you suppose that the constituent assembly will sanction all the measures passed by the new government of national commissioners?" he was asked.

"Yes," he replied. "It will sanction these because there will be no majority according to your supposition, against us and together with the left social revolutionists we will constitute a majority in Petrograd—seven out of twelve."

Lenine expressed the belief that only social revolutionists besides Bolsheviks would enter the new council of national commissioners.

MAJOR KERTH'S PROTEST.

Petrograd, Friday, Nov. 30.—The text of the note which Major M. C.
Kerth, the military attaché, sent to General Dukonin under instructions from Ambassador Francis, protesting on the part of the United States against the negotiations for an armistice between Russia and Germany, follows:

"In accordance with perfectly definite instructions from my government, given by the American ambassador at Petrograd, I have the honor to inform you that owing to the carrying on of a war by the United States in alliance with Russia, which has as its basis the struggle of democracy against autocracy, my government decidedly and energetically protests against any separate armistice which may be made by Russia."

"I request your excellency to give a written acknowledgment of the reception of this declaration."
Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki foreign minister, has issued a warning with reference to American and French communications to General Dukhonin, whom the new government recently deposed as commander in chief of the armies. He says:

"Major Kerth's action is still more inexplicable since the head of the American war mission (Lieutenant Col. Judson) made quite another declaration, that Americans do not desire to interfere with the settlement of any Russian problems whatsoever. It is to be hoped that Maj. Kerth and others will take note of these words and be guided by them."

LAST GERMAN EAST AFRICAN ZONE IS LOST

Last of Troops Defending Afri-

ALL TERRITORY IN DARK CONTINENT NOW CLEARED

Kaiser no Longer Reigns Over Lands Outside Bounds of European Empire.

London, Dec. 4.—East Africa has been completely cleared of the enemy.

This official announcement was made tonight.

The text of the announcement reads:

"Telegraphing under date of December 1, General Vandeventer, commander of the military forces in East Africa, has reported that reconnais-sances have definitely established that German East Africa is completely cleared of the enemy. Thus the whole of German overseas possessions have passed into our hands and those of our Belgian allies.

Only a small German force now remains in being. This has taken refuge in adjoining Portuguese territory and measures are being taken to deal with it."

German East Africa, which has an estimated area of 384,000 square miles, was attacked by the British forces, including South African troops under General Jan Christian Smuts, from the north, and by Belgian and Portuguese troops from the south and west. The campaign began early in 1915. Prior to this, British East Africa had been invaded and General Smuts found that he had to contend with an army of about 50,000 native troops aided by German soldiers and possessing powerful artillery. Starting on March 5 the British troops in two weeks of hard fighting drove the German army off British territory. From that time on the advance of the British forces and their occupation of German territory has been steadily carried out.

With the loss of East Africa all her colonies have been taken from Germany. These had an area of more than one million square miles and a population of about 14,000,000, including 25,000 whites.

Housewives Now More Than Ever Before Realize the Importance of Purity in Food Products

While on my lecture tours, meeting housewives in all sections of the country—I have observed that women are now wide awake to the vital necessity of utmost purity in articles of food.

It used to be that unscrupulous manufacturers were at liberty to foist rankly adulterated food stuffs on the unsuspecting housewife. This production of low grade, frequently worthless and often injurious merchandise gained such strides that the government stepped in with Pure Food legislation and checked it. This measure of protection aroused housewives to the situation and the importance of purity in articles of table use. And as a result of this awakening wise housewives have set a higher standard of purity than the Food Laws demand. The federal and state authorities have cut off to a great extent the manufacturer of products of an injurious nature. The great majority of housewives have gone even farther—and insist on absolute purity.

Take Baking Powder for example. There are many different brands of baking powders on the market. All that are on the market are made within the limits of the law—are pure as the law demands.

But there are other things to be taken into consideration—will they give the best results—are they economical in use?

The housewife now insists that baking powder be as pure as it can be made. That it possess no impurities—no adulterants—no useless fillers—no injurious properties of any sort. They want—and are entitled to—a baking powder so proportioned and blended it remains pure in the baking.

After testing many different brands of baking powders, I am thoroughly convinced that Calumet Baking Powder extends far beyond the standards of purity demanded by the food laws.

Critical experiments establish the fact that Calumet leaves no harmful residue, as do many powders that comply with pure food requirements. The bakings it produces are not only light, fluffy and tasty—but wholesome and healthful—which really is the final test of a baking powder's purity.

The housewife of today wants something better than "just as good." She wants the best, and in my articles on Baking Powder I have no hesitancy in recommending Calumet.

STATE GRANGE OPENS ANNUAL SESSION HERE

Pioneer Farmers' Organization Likes Bismarck so Well That It Comes Back Again

NORTH DAKOTA UNION. CONVENES NEXT WEEK

The State Grange, pioneer among farmers' organizations in North Dakota, began its second annual convention in Bismarck at the Hotel McKenzie this afternoon with 50 delegates, representing practically every district in the state, in attendance. The Grange met in Bismarck last year and it liked the treatment it received from its capital city so well that it voted to make Bismarck its permanent annual meeting place.

The afternoon was devoted to preliminary organization work. The convention will really get under way tomorrow, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. It is probable the meeting will continue until Thursday afternoon. Among the prominent Grange leaders in attendance are: P. M. Williams of Des Moines, chairman of the state executive committee; J. W. Hussey of Minot, state president, and Ray McKaig of Morton county, a member of the executive committee.

Next week another big gathering of agriculturists will be held in the capital city. President R. J. J. Montgomery of Tappan was here today, calling on Secretary G. N. Keniston of the Commercial Club in company with State Secretary D. C. Shipley for the purpose of procuring a convention hall for the North Dakota division of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union, which begins a three days' session here December 12. A speaker from the national bureau will be on the program, and the coal situation and many other important economic problems will be discussed. The Farmers' union is one of the three big organizations of agriculturists in the northwest, and it is chief of all such organizations laying special emphasis upon the economic side of farm industry.

Capital City Homestead to Meet—Capital City Homestead Lodge No. 300, will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, December 4th, at the K. P. hall. Very important business to come up; election of officers and deputies, and other business which every member should be vitally interested in at this time. I invite every member to make a special effort to be present. Meeting will be called at 8 o'clock. Be on time.

Maude Marie Costello Tells How to Have Best Bakings at Lowest Cost

Maude Marie Costello—one of the world's most eminent, and the most eminent of Domestic Scientists—has just completed a series of articles of vital interest and value to housewives.

This series of articles—we are glad to announce—will appear in the columns of this paper. These articles contain the very information needed in the wise selection of baking ingredients. They are educational in the extreme. They point out purchasing and baking errors. They lay hold of baking wastes and tell just how they may be eliminated. They explain definitely how to economize on baking expense and to produce more wholesome bakings.

The housewife who reads these articles and follows Miss Costello's advice, certainly will become a better cook and effect a substantial saving in living costs.

Miss Costello talks to you in terms of facts founded on long experience that bear directly on the choice and use of baking materials. That Miss Costello is well qualified to treat the subject intelligently and thoroughly there is no question of doubt as she is of the Domestic Science Branch of the University of Chicago—a graduate of Lewis Institute—Supervisor of Domestic Science in Public Schools—Special Lecturer on Domestic Arts and Economy—Special Lecturer to the Women's Clubs.

WHAT INDUSTRY MUST DO AFTER WAR TO SURVIVE

Hon Samuel A. Clark of Missouri to Address Bismarck Commercial Club on Subject

PROBLEM OF IMPORTANCE FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE Yearly Meeting of Capital City Organization at Grand Pacific Tuesday Evening

Hon Samuel A. Clark, journalist, lecturer and special representative of the national industrial conservation movement, will address a meeting of the Commercial Club this evening at 8 o'clock at the Grand Pacific. Mr. Clark will tell of the need for co-operation between the government and the business on one hand and business and the public on the other. Such a co-operative program, Mr. Clark will contend, is absolutely essential in order to render American business proof against the turbulent conditions created by war and at the same time prepare it for the trade perils that are bound to crop up after the war. Co-operation is the only thing that can save the country from financial disaster. Mr. Clark is one of the former editors of Missouri's leading business newspapers, and secretary of a large commercial club in Missouri. As a writer and lecturer on economic subjects he has gained wide reputation, and his articles on trade topics are accepted as gospel by leading business men of the country. In his discussion of the business situation, he speaks with the authority of one who has made an exhaustive research into the field, citing a number of striking facts which his editorial work has enabled him to gather first hand.

553 BURLEIGH COUNTY FAMILIES HAVE SIGNED CONSERVATION PLEDGE

Not More Than One-Fifth of Population has to Date Agreed to Save Food

Of an estimated total of 2,500 families in Burleigh county, but 553 have signed the food conservation pledge cards to date, reports Dr. Edwin F. Ladd, federal food administrator for North Dakota. On a per capita basis by far the best showing of any of the Burleigh county towns is made by Wing, which has returned 18 signed cards. Bismarck, with probably 10 times the population of Wing, has furnished only 242 pledges. Other towns report as follows: Mott 19, Britton 10, Driscoll 43, Sterling 12, McKenzie 28, Menoken 17, Baldwin 21, Still 9, Regan 15, Arena 38. The quota of signed pledge cards assigned to Burleigh county is 1,947.

GOLDEN VALLEY BOASTS OF STRONG HOME GUARD

Dr. L. J. Allmaras Heads Organization of 68 Country and Townsfolk

Golden Valley, N. D., Dec. 4.—Golden Valley is proud to claim one of the best organized and most energetic home guard organizations in the state. Sixty-eight town and country people are organized together in a company headed by Dr. L. J. Allmaras, captain. Burt Onstott, first lieutenant, and Martin Joyce, recently of Bismarck, as second lieutenant. Dr. Allmaras has had eight years' military experience and was captain of the cadets at St. Thomas. He is proving an excellent commander. The home guard includes practically the entire membership of the fine Golden Valley band of whose original 12 members 10 have been taken by the draft. The band has a salaried director, and with the home guard is proving an important factor in this thriving village.

INDIANAPOLIS GIRL MAKES CHAMPIONS LOOK TO HONORS

A new contender must be reckoned with in the women's indoor swimming championships to be held early in January in Miss Thelma Darby of Indianapolis, who will make Miss Claire Galligan of New Rochelle, and Miss Olga Lorimer of Philadelphia, look to their laurels. Miss Darby is only 17 years old, but in recent trials at Indianapolis has shown all the earmarks of a wonderful performer. In one race she showed her heels to Miss Galligan, the national champion, over the 50 yard course, finishing the distance in 1.31, two yards ahead of her opponent. The time of the race was 2-5 of a second under the world's record.

UNWELCOME GUESTS AT MENOKEN DANCE HELD

Four Bismarck Young Men Will Face Charge in District Court Hearings Waived

Clem and Louis Clouten, Buff Kasper and Scott McCallan, four well known young men of Bismarck, have waived examination before Police Magistrate Blomquist and are bound over to the district court to answer to a charge of disturbing a public gathering. Last week a dance was given at Menoken. The young men are alleged to have come as unwelcome guests. They had attended a similar dance a year ago it is claimed, and roughhoused some of the Menoken boys. When they showed up again last week they were advised they were not wanted. They are alleged to have persisted in forcing their way into the dance and in selecting the prettiest girls in the room as partners. Sheriff French was notified. Deputies went to Menoken and cleared the dance hall of the Bismarck boys. The following day Menoken town hall was swarmed with men who were the arrest of the quartet, who will have an opportunity to explain to Judge Nuebel.

on President Lewis F. Crawford will be resumed by the Prazier members. A new secretary probably will be named, and a president for the state university to succeed Dr. F. L. McVey, now president of the University of Kentucky.

RAIL BOARD MAY GIVE DECISION IN GRADING CASE AT CARRINGTON

The railway commission today commences a three days' statutory session at Carrington. The board members and Secretary Calderhead are already there. Rate Expert Little left last evening. It is probable the commission at this session will render a decision in the cases of six elevator men who are charged with misgrading under the new state inspection law. One of the other important matters to come up is a hearing on the question of service and rates of the Western Electric Co. at Jamestown.

TO PAVE DRIVEWAYS BURLINGHAM COUNTY COMMISSION WILL OPEN BIDS TOMORROW

Contracts for concrete driveways which will connect the county building with the new asphalt paving surrounding the court house square will be awarded by the Burleigh county commission at the December meeting occurring today, for which date bids have been asked. The work will be done early next spring. For quick service call at Patterson's quick lunch.

SAINTLY SHERIFF TOOK TO COVER IN RIOTS; SUSPENDED

Nonfeasance Charged Against John Wagner of Ramsey County.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 4.—Sheriff John Wagner of Ramsey county was removed from office by Governor Burnquist Monday on a charge of nonfeasance growing out of reports that he did not act to prevent rioting here yesterday in connection with the street car strike. The sheriff, it is charged, could not be found by persons seeking to have measures taken against the disorder, following the union mass meeting yesterday. In a statement today the sheriff declared "he was no prophet" and could not foretell the disorder, though in an advertisement run in local newspapers Saturday he warned the public not to go downtown.

CAMP DODGE NOW AWAITS CLOTHING FOR NEXT DRAFT

Construction Work at Cantonment Completed—New Men Expected Soon

Camp Dodge, Ia., Dec. 4.—With the completion of construction work at this cantonment, the call to the colors of the third and fourth increments assigned to this camp await the arrival of clothing supplies. Major M. A. Butler, construction quartermaster, is occupied with the details of the transfer of the camp to the permanent organization, headed by Major General E. H. Plummer, and this is expected to be accomplished within a few days. When this transaction has been completed, the camp quartermaster will be responsible for the property, the construction of any additional buildings found necessary, and the upkeep of the big army camp. A record of the transaction will be sent to the war department at Washington for approval. Major Butler and the camp quartermaster will be held responsible should any discrepancies appear. It is probable the approval of the war department may not be made known for a year or more. There is the usual speculation as to the time the remaining increments, totaling 25,000 men, will be called out, the general unofficial opinion of officers is that it will not be before Dec. 10, unless the quartermaster's department is able to provide the needed clothing within 10 days. When the remaining increments are called, it is expected 3,000 Alabamians will be assembled here at the same time, comprising the second and last increment of colored troops from that state assigned to this camp.

CONGRESSMAN HELD FOR CONSPIRACY IS ALLOWED VACATION

If You Were A Coach Wouldn't You Feel Pretty Good If You Had This Team

By PAUL PURMAN. How about picking an all-star football team from the teams organized in the army and navy training camps? writes an interested reader. "Some of these soldier teams have shown a lot of class this year." These soldier teams have shown a lot of class. Many of them have been able to defeat college teams of known standing and ability in spite of the fact that they generally have not had the coaching and practice usually given a college team. Picking an all-star team from the soldier camps is another matter. Most of them have not met on the gridiron and a majority have not even played standards of play might be judged. No all-star team can be picked that is not open to a great deal of debate and in the case of the army teams the question is even more involved than that of college teams whose play is a pretty well known factor. However, the following line-up is suggested as a team which would combine defensive and offensive skill, power, speed, football strategy and brains. L. E.—Coolidge (Harvard), Camp Devines. L. T.—Benbrook (Michigan), Ft. Sheridan. L. G.—Black (Yale), Newport Naval Reserves. C.—Des Jardiens (Chicago), Fort Sheridan. P. G.—Schlachter (Syracuse), Newport Naval Reserves. R. T.—West (Colgate), Camp Dix. R. E.—Heyman (W. & J.), Camp Sherman. Q. B.—Anderson (Colgate), Camp Dix. L. H.—Barrett (Cornell), Newport Naval Reserves. R. H.—Gerrish (Dartmouth), Newport Naval Reserves. F. B.—Mahan (Harvard), U. S. Marine Corps.

Six of these men played football in 1916 and had lost none of the fitness which is likely to be dropped if active football play is dropped for a year or so. They are Coolidge, Black, Calahan, West, Anderson and Gerrish. All, with the exception of West, should have been eligible to play this year. The other five were in college in 1915. This would give the team the advantage of youth and all members are men who have not had a chance to forget their college football. On this team would be eight of Camp's first team All-American selections, Black, Schlachter, West, Anderson, Des Jardiens, Barrett and Mahan, two who have received positions on Camp's third choice all-star teams, Coolidge and Heyman, and one who has received honorable mention by the same authority, Gerrish. We do not argue that this is the greatest team that could be picked from our army camps, but it is at least one which would receive respectful consideration from all contenders and which any coach would be glad to lead.

BLIND STUDENTS AT BATHGATE TAKE LEAD IN CONSERVING FOOD

Real patriotism is being displayed by North Dakota's unfortunate wards who live in eternal darkness at the Bathgate institution for the blind, writes Supt. E. P. Chapple to the state board of control. Cornmeal, rye, barley and other cereals are replacing wheat flour to such an extent that the consumption has been reduced fifty per cent. Sugar consumption has been cut in half; meat is served at one meal daily, and there is on meatless day each week.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight? Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered. Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions. S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. Q Atlanta, Ga.

Commercial Club Annual

This Evening Will Enjoy Address From S. A. Clark

The annual luncheon and election of officers of the Bismarck Commercial club, scheduled for the Grand Pacific hotel at 6 this evening, is expected to bring out at least 200 members to hear what has been accomplished by the organization during an eventful year, and to listen to an address from the Hon. Samuel A. Clark of Carrollton, Mo., lecturer, statesman and journalist, who comes to answer that absorbing question, "What can industry do to adjust itself to the new conditions which must be met at the close of the war?"

Through a clerical error, cards were mailed out yesterday noting the luncheon for 12 o'clock noon. This mistake was remedied this morning, and it is generally understood by members that the hour is 6 this evening. President H. P. Goddard and Secretary G. N. Keniston will present their annual reports, and five directors will be elected for the ensuing year. The business of the evening will not consume a great amount of time and will be dispatched between courses, allowing everyone liberty when fed to devote full attention to the address of Mr. Clark, which will be worth hearing.

This is the tenth annual meeting of the Bismarck Commercial club, which was chartered in 1908, and it never has closed a year with a finer record of accomplishment; with more substantial promise for the future, nor with a better financial condition.

LONG LINES LINGER BEFORE POST OFFICES FOR SAVINGS STAMPS

Public Rushes to Secure First Place in Distribution of New Form of Loan.

Washington, Dec. 4.—Demand for war saving stamps exceeded the supply in many cities today at the opening of the campaign by which the government expects to raise $2,000,000 before Jan. 1, 1919. Reports to the treasury told of postoffices besieged by thousands of purchasers who waited in long neglected stocking up in advance sent hurry calls to federal reserve banks for stamps and applications for selling agencies, came in thousands from drug stores, cigar stands, factories, schools and other eligibles. The applications go first to local or state directors of the campaign, or to federal reserve banks, and are forwarded to Secretary McAdoo, who will issue licenses to those authorized to act as agents.

No estimate of aggregate sales on the opening day was available tonight, but telegraphs reports indicated that hundreds of thousands of dollars passed over counters to government credit.

This is the tenth annual meeting of the Bismarck Commercial club, which was chartered in 1908, and it never has closed a year with a finer record of accomplishment; with more substantial promise for the future, nor with a better financial condition.

HUGE BROOKLYN WAR PLANT BURNS WITH LOSS OF A MILLION

Fire Breaks Out Under Eyes of Guard from Causes Not Yet Disclosed.

RIGID INVESTIGATION WITH PLOT SUSPECTED

New York, Dec. 4.—Four large buildings at the Morse Dry Dock and Repair Company on the south Brooklyn water front were destroyed by fire tonight with an estimated loss of $1,000,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. United States soldiers on duty at the plant declared that the fire started suddenly in the carpenter shop, where hundreds of men were working, and then quickly spread to other buildings.

The Morse company was working on large government orders and is one of the few private plants that has a guard of United States soldiers. A sentry fired his rifle into the air when he discovered a small flame eating its way out of one end of the large wooden carpenter shop. Firemen, fire boats and members of the naval reserves fought the fire.

The carpenter shop, the joining shop and the pattern shop, all wooden buildings, were burned to the ground and the immense brick machine shop, in which valuable machinery was stored, was destroyed. An employees' restaurant and an oil storage plant caught fire, but were saved with little damage.

Two large steamships which were in dry dock were towed into the harbor. Municipal, state and federal authorities are conducting an investigation into the cause of the fire.

WAVE AFTER WAVE OF GERMAN INFANTRY IS THROWN AGAINST CEUCELLING BRITISH GUN FIRE

Terrible Fatality Fails to Dampen Enemy's Ardor to Recover Lost Ground.

BRITISH DOGGEDLY HOLD GAINS THUS FAR MADE

Magnitude of Battle Reaches the Grade of Gigantic Effort Before Verdun.

LARGE FORCES REPULSED. London, Dec. 4.—"From Gonnelleu to Marconing," Field Marshal Haig's report from France tonight says, "the enemy delivered attacks in great strength with large forces and has been repulsed with heavy losses."

With the British Army in France Dec. 4.—(By Associated Press)—The Germans today were making their second great attempt to break through the defenses in the Gonnelleu sector and pin the salient which General Byng recently drove into the enemy territory little farther to the north. The German assault was launched against La Vacquerie shortly before 9 o'clock in the morning and spread rapidly. Within two hours a considerable front, from La Vacquerie southward towards Vendhuile, was in the hands of the enemy.

The enemy was employing great forces of infantry, which were sent forward under terrific artillery bombardments from a concentration of guns from which the Germans had perfected since the smashing of the Hindenburg line.

Battle Grows Vigorous. By noon there were indications that the German onslaught might equal if not surpass in fierceness their drive which carried them through the British front south of Gonnelleu last Friday.

The British infantry and artillery had met the shock brilliantly and were holding their own strongly through the first grim hours of fighting. The Germans approached La Vacquerie from the east and south east and at the outset it appeared that the attack was comparatively local. In their initial charge the enemy came up against a stone wall and they were forced to fall back. They kept coming in waves, however, and finally secured a footing in the town, but were immediately ejected.

Intense fighting at close quarters followed, and as this progressed the Germans developed an offensive further down the line. By 11 o'clock their artillery was maintaining a drum fire against the whole front involved.

Attack Spreads Northward. As the day wore on the German attack also spread northward toward Vendhuile and became even fiercer. The battle about La Vacquerie was particularly intense, with the contenting forces at close grips.

There appeared to be no doubt that the enemy intended to break through

A Great Discovery

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; under the eyes in bag-like formations.

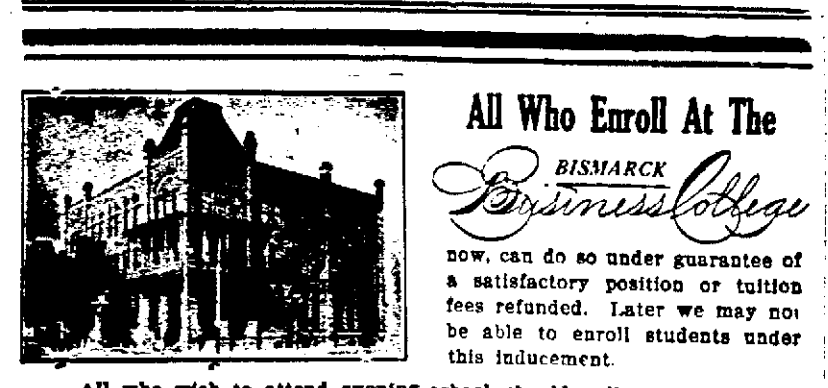

As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly Anuric acts; the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear.

The very best possible way to take care of yourself is to take a glass of hot water before meals and Anuric, the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo. Step into a drug store and ask for a 50c. package of Anuric, which is many times more potent than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. A short trial will convince you.

MANY WOMEN OF OUR HOME STATE WOULD TESTIFY.

Lewiston, Idaho.—"When I was a girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly and it would leave me so weak that I could hardly stand. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The first bottle gave me such relief that I continued to use it until I was perfectly healthy."—Mrs. DELLA LANDIS, 208 8th St.

Where Are They Now?

Left to right: Grand Duke Nicholas, Kerensky and the former czar. The overthrow of the Kerensky provisional government by the Bolsheviks, with all the attending chaos, has provided the mystery—where are they now? The duke's whereabouts have not been hinted at in authentic dispatches for weeks. Kerensky, driven from Petrograd, bobs up "somewhere in Russia" with a rumored intent to commit suicide and then bobs out of sight. The last heard of the former czar he was a prisoner at Tolsk, and he may be there yet—or may not.

13 Mexicans Killed When American Sortie Crosses Rio Grande After Attack

Indio, Texas, Dec. 4.—Via Army Telephone to Marfa, Texas.—Mexican outlaws opened fire on one of the American cavalry patrols five miles from here late today, wounding Private Keist, in the thigh and leg. The American troops stationed here immediately crossed the river into Mexico, opened fire on the little settlement of shacks and killed 12 of the bandits, including Felipe Romero and Rafael Venaslado. The shacks where the outlaws sought shelter were burned after the occupants had been driven out.

Reinforcements consisting of a battalion of mobile infantry and motorcycle machine gun troops have arrived here and were preparing for action tonight should the bandits reassemble and attempt to resume the firing across the line.

BULGARS DICKER FOR BIG REWARDS IN BALKAN LAND

Allegiance to Central Powers Dependent on Ability to "Deliver the Goods."

GERMAN PROMISES AND ENTENTE POSSIBILITIES

Contents of Diplomatic Dispatch Box Discloses Intrigue for Bulgaria's Support.

Petrograd, Thursday, Nov. 29.—The demands of Bulgaria for territorial gains for the consideration of which a conference of the Central powers was called at Nish, are outlined in a secret telegram from the charge d'affaires at Bern to the foreign office. The telegram is dated Sept. 21, 1917, and is based on information received from a Turkish officer who had just arrived in Bern. Bulgaria, the telegram said, demanded that her boundary be from Moravia to the junction of the Danube, including Nish, Serbia; along the line from Nish to Prishtina and along the upper Vardar river to the Albanian and Greek frontier; also Monastir, Saloniki, Serex Drama Kavala with the frontier reaching the sea. The state of Dobruja (Rumania) also was demanded.

Further Demands. Claims from a Bulgarian source corroborate the foregoing with an additional demand for the valley of the Timako (separating Serbia and Bulgaria) together with the towns of Piro and Vrana (Serbia).

Admission from the charge d'affaires at Bern, dated Sept. 21, 1917 relates a conversation between the Archimandrite, Stephan and a British diplomat to whom he was introduced but who refused to give his name. The Briton is quoted as having spoken of making use of Bulgarian and Greek forces and to de-

Tobacco Habit

A very interesting book has been published on tobacco habit—how to conquer it quickly and easily. It tells the dangers of excessive smoking, chewing, snuff using, etc., and explains how nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, weak eyes, stomach troubles and numerous other disorders may be eliminated through stopping self-indulgence by tobacco. The man who has written this book wants to genuinely help all who have become addicted to tobacco habit and says there's no need to suffer that awful craving or restlessness which comes when one tries to quit voluntarily. This is not mind-cure or temperance sermon tract, but plain common sense, clearly set forth. The author will send it free, postpaid, in plain wrapper. Write, giving name and full address—a postcard will do. Address: Edward J. Woods, 1423 R. Station E, New York City. Keep this advertisement, it is likely to prove the best one you ever read in this journal.

CONGRESS WAITS DECLARATION OF WILSON'S POLICY

Interest in Today's Message Centers in Course Toward German Allies.

BODY PERVADED BY CONFIDENT SPIRIT

War Budget of Thirteen and Half Billions Awaits Congressional Approval

Washington, Dec. 4.—Congress is ready to take up again its part in the prosecution of the war.

The second session of the sixty-fifth congress began today at noon with brief routine sessions marked by the receipt of appropriation estimates for next year's war and ordinary expenses aggregating the vast sum of $13,500,000,000.

Tomorrow the senate and house meet in joint session at 12:30 p. m. to hear President Wilson deliver his annual address.

Guidance of the president in the work ahead is awaited by tacit agreement. "Congressional" leaders tonight admitted that his recommendations, awaited with profound interest by the world, virtually would outline the session's program.

The German Allies. Speculation as to the nature of the president's address centers largely upon the question whether he will recommend declarations of war by the United States against Germany's allies. General belief is that he will not, at least for the present, and that congress will follow his desires. Sentiment for such action is widespread, however, and individual members probably will introduce war resolutions. One or two senators were prepared today to offer such resolutions, but were prevailed upon to withhold them.

Solons Show Confidence. A spirit of confidence apparently pervades congress. Returning members exchanged views with declarations of increased determination to lend any aid in vigorous conduct of the war. The leaders predicted that legislation would be confined largely to war measures, as the president is understood to desire. Senator Martin, democratic leader in the senate, said there would be little time for other than war problems, and Representative Kitchin, the house floor leader, announced after informal conferences with his colleagues, that he was disposed to favor the plan. The understanding, however, is that the first few weeks of the session, until after the holiday recess at least, will be open to general legislation.

Prohibition and Suffrage. The house judiciary committee meets tomorrow and an consideration of national prohibition and woman suffrage measures was postponed at the last session on the basis of action many of the committeemen is to vote on them now, one way or the other.

A wartime aspect was given today's sessions by the presence of many uniformed men among spectators in the crowded galleries, and of women busily mending and knitting during the opening ceremonies.

Senate proceedings were unusually brief. After adoption of routine resolutions, the senate adjourned out of respect to the late senator Huston of Wisconsin. The house remained in session until the joint committee appointed to notify President Wilson of the return of congress reported, and then passed the resolution for tomorrow's joint session. The usual crop of bills, resolutions and petitions was received in the house, including a resolution by Representative Martin of Louisiana proposing congressional investigation of the sugar shortage.

Fitzgerald to Resign. Representative John K. Fitzgerald of Brooklyn, N. Y., chairman of the important house appropriations committee, prominent democratic leader, and a member of eighteen years' service, announced late today his intention to resign effective Dec. 31 to resume the practice of law. His successor to head the appropriations committee probably will be Representative Swager of Louisville, Ky., ranking democratic committeeman.

Little business this week is planned by senate and house leaders as the leaders and committee chairmen want an opportunity to confer and discuss procedure.
